WHAT IS ALPHA? Alpha is an opportunity for anyone to explore the Christian faith in a relaxed setting over a series of thought-provoking weekly sessions, with an optional retreat day in the middle of the course.

At each session, guests enjoy great food, laughter and learning in a fun and friendly atmosphere where no question about life or God is seen as too simple or too hostile...questions like — Is there a God? Why am I here? Where did I come from? Where am I going?

Alpha is worldwide. It's found in over 160 countries running in tens of thousands of churches of all denominations - as well as cafés, bars, homes and workplaces. More than 20 million people have taken this opportunity to explore the meaning of life. Why not check it out and join us at the next Alpha this Fall? www.alphacanada.org

In Evangelii Gaudium, Pope Francis invites Catholic Christians to remember and rekindle the earnest and immediate passion of the proclamation of the Gospel. He writes: "The Gospel offers us the chance to live life on a higher plane, but with no less intensity: 'Life grows by being given away, and it weakens in isolation and comfort. Indeed, those who enjoy life most are those who leave security on the shore and become excited by the mission of communicating life to others'. When the Church summons Christians to take up the task of evangelization, she is simply pointing to the source of authentic personal fulfillment. For 'here we discover a profound law of reality: that life is attained and matures in the measure that it is offered up in order to give life to others. This is certainly what mission means'."

Did you know that many Canadians do not have a faith tradition? Even among those baptized, many do not actively live their faith and many have lost their faith. As a consequence there are many life questions that can go unexplored and unanswered. ...To be continued
