

We say FAREWELL, with GRATITUDE and APPRECIATION.

Jody Garneau has been working at St Ann's Parish since 2012. Her joy, knowledge, experience and theological background became handy in accompanying parishioners, as they journeyed and embraced the Catholic Faith.

Jody has worked as coordinator for both RCIA and Adult Faith Formation. In this capacity Jody has implemented many programs, including ALPHA, "Consoling the Heart of Jesus" and "Thirty Three Days to Morning Glory".

Jody has also been instrumental in helping the local Church as the Safe Environment Coordinator. These ministries are particularly important in the life of the Church for which she served generously.

As St Ann's Pastor and from the bottom of my heart, I thank Jody for her guidance and wisdom throughout the years. I invoke many blessings on her and her family.

Unfortunately, we cannot throw a farewell party to celebrate and wish Jody well. When it is safe to do so, St Ann's parishioners will gather to thank Jody, who planted goodness in people's hearts by her way of life.

Jennifer Pucek has worked at St Ann's Preschool, as well as PREP Coordinator for six years at our Parish.

Jennifer's warm smile, kindness and charism brighten people's lives and touched our children's lives.

Her family is moving to northern BC, as they take this important step in their lives.

As St Ann's Pastor and in sincerity of heart, I thank Jennifer for her input and guidance throughout the years. May God bless her and all her projects abundantly!

Please remember in your prayers the repose of the soul of ALICE ROZARIO who passed away Monday, May 18th.

Thank you Mark for the great cleaning job of the convection oven, cooking racks and overhead stainless steel filters.

Thank you to all those who came out on Friday to clean the church.

Today's readings describe the Ascension of the Lord Jesus, his Heavenly glory after promising to send the Apostles the Holy Spirit as the source of Heavenly power and commanding them to bear witness to Him through their lives and preaching throughout the world. But the ascended Jesus is still with us because of His promise, "I am with you always; yes, to the end of time." He is with us at all times and in all places, releasing a new energy upon the earth, the energy of the Holy Spirit.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, describes the scene of Jesus' Ascension, the promise of the Holy Spirit, the instruction to the apostles to wait at Jerusalem for the power from above, and the missionary command to the apostles to bear witness to him.

In the second reading, Paul teaches us that God revealed His might in the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ and in exalting him over all angelic forces. Jesus remains accessible to us now in the life-giving Holy Spirit, assuring us that one day we, too, will be ascending to Heavenly glory, provided that, with His grace, we live out our Faith in Him through the mission of loving service He entrusts to us.

Today's Gospel tells us that, with his return to the Father, Jesus completes his mission on earth. But just before his Ascension, Jesus entrusted to the disciples the mission of preaching the Good News and evangelizing the whole world by bearing witness to him through their lives. It is in the Ascension that we see Jesus entering fully into the life and glory of God. In the descriptions of Christ after his Resurrection, we are given a hint of what life will be like in Heaven. The prospect of sharing that glory should be the driving force of our lives.
