As the office is closed on Saturdays & Sundays, all reservations for Mass must be in before Friday at 4:00 p.m.

Next weekend July 5th is CWL Sunday. Please remember to wear your scarf when you come to Mass. We will also be praying the Divine Mercy and Rosary by the church grotto @ 3pm. As we missed the actual Canada Day parade, we can all dress in red and white and bring along our Canada flags. Please remember to bring your own lawn chair. We still must maintain physical distancing. All are welcome to join us.

To view the whole virtual Canada Day parade the link is: https://www.abbotsford.ca/leisure/events_in_abbotsford/canada_day_celebrations.htm

Surviving the Summer at Home: How Knowing Your Child’s Temperament and Love Language will Help
Join Frances and Matt Maddalozzo as they share their family testimony and elaborate on the graces that come with understanding temperaments and love languages within the family.
Frances and Matt met through Catholic Christian Outreach and attended World Youth Day together in 2002 as Missionaries. They are parishioners of St. Luke’s Parish in Maple Ridge and have recently delved into family education to journey with those faced with the challenges of parenting. They have been married for 15 years and have 8 children. They have developed their parenting skills throughout the years and continue to do so today. This webinar takes place Monday, June 29th from 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm. Register online at beholdvancouver.org/events
