

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 12TH, 2017

WHY ARE WE CALLED TO PRAY FOR THE DEAD?

The souls in Purgatory are completely engaged with the beautiful yet difficult cleansing of themselves, to be made pure and whole for life in Heaven, and there are no "shortcuts" for them to access for themselves in this process (we have plenty on earth – the sacraments, spiritual devotions, indulgences, etc.). Also, each person's degree of purgation will match the degree to which they have sinned – just as in a legal system the severity of jail time is supposed to "match" the severity of the crime – and in this way justice is achieved. However, in God's infinite mercy, He allows the Church Militant (you and I) to "pay the debt" of each other's sins through our sacrifices of prayer, fasting, and especially the Mass. This grace extends to the suffering souls in Purgatory, and in this way we can lessen their suffering and speed their entry into Heaven.

WHAT IS PURGATORY?

Imagine you've skipped across a tar field to arrive on the other side, where Jesus in all His love and mercy and goodness is awaiting you with open arms. When you get there, however, you find that your clothes are filthy and you desire to be made clean before embracing Beauty himself. The condition in which you are purged of this filth (i.e., the stain of sin) is called Purgatory. It involves great suffering because burning shame and deep remorse are painful; when Peter betrayed Jesus, the Lord turned and met his gaze, and Peter "went out and began to weep bitterly" (Luke 23: 60-62). However, Purgatory should most of all be understood as a profound expression of God's love; it is His way of making it possible for us to be with Him "as the pure and unstained souls He had meant us to be from the beginning", allowing us to become truly ourselves. Therefore, for the souls in Purgatory, a deep-rooted joy pervades all of their suffering – it is the joy of knowing that they are securely destined for Heaven.

RCIA for this year will begin regular classes on November 30th. If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith and considering becoming Catholic they should contact Jody Garneau in the RCIA office to arrange an interview (604-852-5602 ex. 227) or email adultfaith@stannsabbotsford.ca These classes would also be recommended for anyone who has not completed their sacraments (holy communion or confirmation) and wishes to do so. We also welcome those who want to be involved in Faith Formation through RCIA as sponsors, hosts, and helpers. We will meet on Thursday evenings for the remainder of the school year.

LifeTeen (Gr. 8-12)

Nov 18 – Illumination – 6-8pm

In the Old Testament, God makes promises to humanity. God keeps these promises even when humanity fails to be faithful to Him. This points us to God's covenant with us fulfilled in Jesus. When we doubt God's promise we can look to Sacred Scripture to the stories of those who believed and their promise was realized. We can always return to the Eucharist to be present to God's promise fulfilled to us today.

Junior Youth (Gr. 5-7)

Nov 11 – Leaders Who Serve – 6-8pm

Jesus tells us to forget about titles and status and rather focus on serving others. We are challenged to be leaders who serve rather than leaders who are served.

Wanted: Youth Choir Members

Our youth choir which plays at the 5pm Saturday Youth Mass is looking for members, especially singers! If you or anyone you know would like to join and help us out please contact Kirsten at youthministry@stannsabbotsford.ca. We meet for practice at 4pm on Saturdays and will be starting to have weekday practices as we approach the Christmas season.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS DINNER AND AWARDS: Saturday, December 2nd in the Parish Centre. Tickets for sale after all Masses today (next 2 weekends) and at the Parish Office. $20 pp. Turkey Dinner with all the trimmings. Open to all parishioners.

ST. ANN'S MEALS FOR MOMS

Community building is at the heart of St. Ann's parish and we are pleased to introduce a new initiative called, Meals for Moms.

Meals for Moms is an outreach program designed to support new and existing mothers with a meal drop off schedule.

Those eligible are:

- Mother's who have just given birth
- Families who have adopted an infant
- Mother's who have experienced pregnancy loss (through miscarriage, still birth, etc.)

Our hope is that through this initiative, we will be able to support mothers by providing them with a home cooked meal ever second day for

In order for this outreach program to be a success, we need your help! We understand that some of you may not be in a position to cook a meal, but we are also hoping to provide mothers with some new knitted baby clothes or baby blankets. These can be dropped off at parish office.

We need volunteers who can:

- Pray for this new initiative
- Cook a meal
- Pick up/drop off meal
- Knit baby clothes
- Bake
- Write a "Congratulatory" card

If you would like to volunteer by cooking a meal, or if you are an expecting mother, please contact Elisabeth Wauthy at MothersatStAnn@gmail.com Please join us in working together to become a Christ-centered community of missionary disciples!

Thank you in advance for your help and support.

CHRISTMAS CRAFT FAIR: November 24th, 4-9pm & Nov. 25th, 9am-4, at Sts Joachim & Ann Parish Hall. Local crafters & artisans. Chili supper Friday (veggie & meat). Perogies, soup & sandwiches on Saturday. Free Face painting & Santa visit.

Welcome to St. Ann's Parish

Our Vision Statement: to be a Christ-centered community of missionary disciples.

Our Mission Statement: to work and pray to be a welcoming, Eucharistic community that spreads the good news of Christ. We each strive to share our gifts within and beyond the parish for the glory of God.
